DEFENDANT	)

ORDER ON DEFENDANT’S MOTION TO REDUCE SENTENCE

The defendant has asked for the appointment of counsel on a form prepared by this District’s Federal Defender’s office in connection with processing cases under the retroactive crack cocaine Guideline amendment. Because the retroactive Guideline cannot help this defendant, however, I deny the motion.

Judge Carter sentenced the defendant on April 23, 2003. He found him to be a career offender under Guideline 4B1.1, with a Guidelines range of 262 to 327 months. Drug quantity did not affect determination of that Guidelines range.<sup>1</sup> Judge Carter then granted a government motion to depart and sentenced the defendant to 183 months.

Because the defendant’s final sentence was not affected by drug quantity (not in calculation of the Base Offense Level or Total Offense Level and in the resulting Guidelines range; and not in the amount of the downward departure), the Guideline amendment reducing the offense levels for crack cocaine cannot alter this defendant's sentence.

Accordingly, the defendant's motion, treated as both a motion to appoint counsel and to reduce sentence under 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c), is DENIED.
